

1893-032 Chancery Causes: William D. Gilbert vs. Lucretia Gilbert
Lee Co.

Parsons, Markham

CA-Divorce
T-Vices

- Correspondence

To the Hon. H. S. H. Morrison Judge of the Circuit for Lee County:

Humbly Complaining, Your orator Wm. D. Gilbert a resident of Lee County Va., would respectfully represent unto your Honor:

That on or about the day of April 1886 or 7 he intermarried with one Lucretia Parsons with whom he lived happily until a few weeks ago; that the fruits of this marriage were one child ~~the youngest~~ of which is now about four years old; that to your orator's surprise and grief a month or so ago he learned that his said wife had become untrue to him. Your orator had not suspected his wife of unchastity until a few weeks ago, he accidentally found two letters or parts of letters in the hand-writing of his wife, although not signed by her or addressed to any one, on enquiring he found that they were intended for one William Markham. Which letters are her filed Marked A & B & prayed to be considered as a part of this bill.
Your orator found other letters of the same tenor as those exhibited but in his grief and surprise and not knowing what to do with them he turned them over to his wife and she destroyed them.

Your orator in the strongest terms allleges and avers That his said wife within the last five years has been guilty of adultery that she has had ^{sexual} intercourse with other men than your orator within the last five years; That your orator and his said wife are both now, and have been for the last year and all their married life of 6 or 7 years, residents of this County and State; That since his knowledge of her adulterous acts he has not lived with, nor had intercourse with, nor condoned in any way her adulterous acts; and that her adulterous acts were done and committed without his procurement, connivance and consent.

The premises considered your orator is advised that he is entitled to have the bonds of matrimony now existing between him and the said Lucretia annulled, set aside and for ever dissolved. His prayer therefore is that your honor take cognizance of this his bill of Complaint; That the said Lucretia Gilbert be made a party defendant to this bill; That she be required to answer the same on oath; and

That on a hearing of this bill, he be granted a divorce from the said Suzetta a vinculo matrimonii - for ever annulling, sitting aside and dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between your orator and the said Suzetta. And that all other further and general relief be granted your orator as the justice of his cause and equity may allow. And he will ever pray &c. May process is now directed &c

I have seen many a long sad day in the past but the saddest will be in the future when I have to leave you my dear you my Darling One, you who I have learned to love better than my self, my pleasure and happiness or ^{would be pleasure to me, or} I can't think of any thing that I could enjoy my with.

Yours truly

Chandler, Lee Co Virginia

Keep your promise

I have thought that's the loneliest days and but to day and last night is the loneliest and saddest hours that I ever saw last night I cried my self to sleep and I Dreamt of you I thought thought that you were in my arms how sweet the moment was but I did not stop crying long when I awakened oh how sad and lonely and I was in the bed by my self and my Dream was false no one in my arms no one to say a kind word to me no one sweet lips to kiss no one neck to fold my arms around and the Dearest of my heart away from me.

and to think how short till the time is for me to leave I cannot see you.
smell ⁺ your face and kiss your cheeks & look in them pretty blue eyes and listen to you speak kind words to me & how lonely I am instead of hearing your kind voice it will be ill words and unkind treatment if this won't trouble me what on earth will but I hope it won't be a long farewell I hope it won't be long till we be with each other to part no more untill Death parts us. don't you think that I will ^{be true to} prove to you for I cannot no never you will see that I will be true true true to you when all else fails and fades away.
